

The map displays the Galápagos Islands (Archipel de Colón) in the Pacific Ocean, centered on the Equator (ÉQUATEUR). The islands are shown in yellow against a light blue background. Key islands and features include:

- Île Darwin (top left)
- Île Wolf (top left)
- Île Pinta (top center)
- Île Marchena (top center)
- Île Genovesa (top right)
- Volcán Wolf (1646) and Volcán La Cumbre (1463) on Île Fernandina
- Île San Salvador (center)
- Île Rábida and Île Pinzón (center)
- Île Santa Cruz (center right) with Puerto Ayora and Île Baltra (864)
- Île San Cristóbal (right) with Puerto Baquerizo Moreno (896)
- Île Santa Fé (right)
- Île Española (bottom right)
- Île Santa María (bottom center) with elevation 640
- Île Isabela (bottom left) with Santo Tomás (1490) and Puerto Villamil (1689)

The map includes a scale bar (0 to 100 km) and a coordinate grid with latitude and longitude markings.

